VECTRA BANK COLORADO ADDS ELIZABETH COHEN AS AN EXECUTIVE BANKER AND MORTGAGE SPECIALIST

DENVER – Mortgage professional Elizabeth Cohen joins Vectra Bank Colorado as an executive banker and mortgage specialist at its Aspen Branch, located at 534 E. Hyman St.

In her new position, Cohen is charged with improving shareholder value by increasing business growth. Her primary focus will be on evaluating the most appropriate mortgage loans for Vectra customers and efficiently coordinating their lending process. With multifaceted experience and more than 20 years of experience in the mortgage industry, Cohen brings to Vectra strong leadership, management and customer service skills.

Cohen has worked with various banks and mortgage firms in Colorado. She strongly supports the local community as a volunteer for the Aspen Idea Festival and is a member of the Elks Lodge. She holds a bachelor's degree in business and French from Stephens College in Columbia, Mo.

With assets of $2.78 billion, Vectra Bank Colorado is a proactive, customer-focused organization dedicated to real relationship banking. Part of the Zions Bancorporation family of banks, Vectra serves Colorado's small, middle-market and corporate business clients with 41 locations throughout Colorado, and one in Farmington, New Mexico.
