

VECTRA BANK COLORADO

Private Bank and Executive Banking

Vectra Bank coordinates financial services, manages trusts, and oversees investments and brokerage services as part of the personalized service we offer private and executive bankers, who have limited time to address banking matters.

Private Banking

Our private bankers meet clients at their home or office to manage their daily banking needs, facilitate credit requests, and share investment management and estate planning expertise. Vectra's private banking products and services include:

- Premier checking account and money market sweep.
- Personal lending services.
- Trust services, including portfolio management, custody services, living trust and testamentary trust.
- Corporate trust, including escrow agent, custody service and safekeeping agent.
- Treasury management.

Executive Banking

Vectra's executive banking program is designed to save busy professionals both time and money, and is provided to those who qualify based upon net worth and income. Program benefits include:

- Appointing a Vectra personal relationship manager to assist executives with expediting banking requests, coordinating financial services and managing their portfolios.
- Providing customized interest checking, money market, money market sweep and platinum savings accounts.
- Tailoring and expediting revolving lines of credit, home equity lines, real estate loans, bridge loans and more.
- Enabling convenient 24/7 access to personal accounts.
- Delivering new and pre-owned vehicles to clients' homes or offices to test drive and receive special pricing.
- Connecting clients with investment representatives and resources related to online trading to comprehensive wealth management services.
