Vectra Bank Colorado Announces Symone Massey, Durango Market President

DURANGO (May 2025) Vectra Bank Colorado is pleased to announce the promotion of Symone Massey to the role of Market President in Durango.

Massey brings over 25 years of experience in business lending, commercial banking, and market leadership - most recently serving as a top-performing Business Banker for Vectra Bank in Grand Junction. She has worked across both the Utah and Colorado markets, building trusted relationships, and delivering strategic financial solutions that help businesses grow.

Throughout her career, Massey has consistently demonstrated her ability to build high-performing teams, drive market growth, and create a client-focused, service-driven culture by working closely with teams and business partners to listen and learn from their best practices. She is a leader in business development, SBA, C&I, ABL, CRE lending, and risk management.

Durango is a vibrant, growing community, and Massey is honored to lead Vectra's mission to serve the people and businesses of Durango. Her goal is to support our local teams and connect with the local business community, building lasting partnerships that make an impact in this region. Massey is excited to call Durango home.

She holds a BA in Business from Utah State University, is certified with the American Institute of Banking, and a member of the National Contractors Association, National Builders Association, and a proud Rotarian. Throughout her career, Massey has served as chair/president and/or board member for numerous nonprofits, civic and finance organizations, championing initiatives that strengthen local economies and empower business growth in communities.
